Message Text: 2 Samuel 11-12

Message Title: The Broken & Whole Heart

Big Idea: Don’t be afraid of being seen by God.

Questions:

1. What are things in your life that keep you from fully engaging with God?
2. In 2 Samuel 11, how did David's life spiral deeper and deeper into sin?
3. How did David respond when confronted with his sin?
4. What is the benefit of responding like David did when confronted with his sin?
5. Why can we take ownership of our sin and run to Christ in our brokenness without fear? What opportunity does our failure present?
6. How can sin consume you if you are slow to repent of it?
7. Who is someone in your life that you can be open and honest with? Are you being honest with them?
8. How do you respond when someone confronts you with your sin? Where does your brokenness lead you?

the Broken and Whole Heart

1 LESUIRE, MONEY & POWER have the POTENTIAL to corrupt your heart, just like it did to DAVID.

David, the man after God's own heart is caught with clouded judgement because of this opportunity.

→ How we respond in our WORST MOMENTS – matters!

2 FAILURE IS AN OPPORTUNITY! Nathan's story of the sheep spoke to David, the SHEPHERD, and was willing to risk DEATH to speak the TRUTH to David's heart.

→ Do you have a "Nathan" who can speak into your life?

3 PAIN IS NOT AN EXCUSE TO ISOLATE

David repents to God after being challenged by Nathan and chooses to endure the pain and make things right with God. He admitted the truth and was HONEST with God and himself.

→ Don't be afraid of being seen by God and broken by God. God seeks not to break us – but to make us WHOLE!
